DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1 – 8 and 14 -15 drawn to a method, computer program product and a "an authenticity checker" (unknown statutory class) that analyses embedded images, such as a watermark, classified in class 382, subclass 100.
- II. Claims 9 - 11, drawn to an automated teller machine including biometric security methods, classified in class 902, subclass 3.
- III. Claims 12 – 13, drawn to a recordable medium (non-statutory class).

The inventions are independent or distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, Invention I has separate utility such as "authenticity checker" that analyses embedded images, while Invention II has separate utility such as an automated teller machine. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and/or because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Additional Comments

Examiner apologizes for submission of an Election/Restriction Requirement at this date. Unfortunately, Examiner is having significant problems as the pending claims appear to be a direct translation from a Japanese patent application, and have considerable grammatical and language problems as such.

Examiner would like to take this opportunity to suggest that Applicant make additional corrections via amendment to claim language allowing for further examination of submitted Claims. For example, Claims 1 – 8 have numerous §112 problems. Such problems are preventing Examiner from ascertaining what statutory class under §101 is being referenced by “an authenticity checker” consisting of “sections.” Is the authenticity checker directed to a machine or software? Are the sections software modules, mechanical devices or merely phases in a manually performed methodology? Additionally, Claims 12 – 13 appear to be software per se which is not a statutory class under §101 which is why Examiner was unable to even classify Invention III.
